First Showing of Porch Furniture

We have the most complete showing of Staircase and Novelty Porch Furniture that the season will afford. We will place on sale Monday one carload of the specially woven Reed Furniture, Rockers, Settees and Porch Swings. Please do not confuse this with the ordinary kind shown in the city. There is none just like it; none quite so good, and it costs no more than the ordinary kind. As an inducement to early buying we will quote especially low prices this week.

The New ICEBERG REFRIGERATOR

Nearly every store carries refrigerators. Each claims theirs is the best. Before you purchase a refrigerator see the new Iceberg. There is a reason why we sell it. We have built refrigerators for forty years and our experience and guarantee is behind every one we sell. Prices on these refrigerators are no higher than on the ordinary kind.

PRIMARY CONTESTS ARE

SETTLED BY COMMISSION

The Fifth, Twelfth and Fifteenth Wards Had Contesting Delegations.

LIST IS NOW COMPLETE

Contests arising out of the primaries for the selection of delegates to the Republican state convention from the several wards in the city of Indianapolis were disposed of yesterday by the Board of Primary Election Commissioners. The board was in session from 10 till 1 o'clock in the Criminal Court room and heard contests from three wards—the Fifth, Twelfth and Fifteenth.

In the Fifth the slate headed by Frank Kelly was given the credentials. In the Twelfth, where two sets of delegates were chosen, one at the voting place on Reister street and the other at No. 19 engine house, the engine-house slate, headed by Frank Martin, was recognized. Joe Foppiano and Conrad Keller brought the contest in the Fifteenth, but they could not make a good case, and the delegates headed by Anthony Mack were given the credentials.

There was some talk of the contest from the Twelfth ward being carried to the state convention, where the committee on credentials would give the contestants another hearing and the convention itself would decide between the two sets of delegates. However, last night it was said that the Reister-street delegates would abide by the decision of the Board of Primary Election Commissioners.

STAND TAKEN BY THE MACHINISTS

The heads of the thirty-five plants in the city employing machinists have refused to sign a contract presented to them by the men, in which it is asked that they agree to pay 30 cents an hour for labor during the coming year. The contract was to have taken effect on May 1.

Though that rate is no higher than is now being paid, after the Employers' Association investigated the matter it decided that it was not the best thing to do. Members discovered, so they say, that only three shops in the city have written contracts with their men. It is also said by the association that one of the employing machinists run open shops.

SAD FUNERAL PARTY TO MT. JACKSON CEMETERY

Infant Child of Jacob Anderson and Wife Is Given Decent Burial.

Touched by the distress of the bereaved family, the officers on duty at the police station, aided by Coroner Tutwiler, assisted in the burial of the six-month-old baby of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Anderson yesterday morning. After arriving at the police station on Friday night a stranger and friendless, with his dead baby in his arms, Anderson, with his family, has had the sympathy of all who know the story, and has received the assistance which permitted him to lay the little one to rest in Mt. Jackson Cemetery.

Through Coroner Tutwiler, arrangements were made with Undertakers Royter and Askins, and the county will pay the expense of the burial. A little white dress was procured for the child by Coroner Tutwiler. Patrolman Sangston procured an armful of flowers at the market house, after telling the story of the family's misfortune, and a collection sufficient to defray incidental expenses was taken up at the police station. The child was escorted to the cemetery on a street car by Patrolman Sangston, and after taking a last look at the child, returned in grief to their wagon near Cumberland and prepared to continue their journey to Columbus, O., which was interrupted by the sudden death of the baby.

GRAND CHAPTER OF THE EASTERN STAR

The Grand Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, will hold its thirtieth annual session in the Masonic Temple this week. A reception will be held Tuesday night, at which the grand officers will receive in the lodge room and the past grand officers in the south lodge room. The Grand Chapter will be called to order Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, and the reports of the officers read. The election of officers will take place Wednesday afternoon, and on the same evening the work of the Grand Chapter will be illustrated by the officers of the Masonic Chapter No. 21, and the floral work given by members of Queen Esther Chapter, No. 3. The routine work will be over by Thursday. During the past year eleven chapters have been organized, and if the chapters are fully represented 75 voting members will be present, including past grand patrons, past grand matrons and the grand officers. Mrs. Minnie Watson Goltra, the grand matron, will arrive on Tuesday and stop at the Claypool.

HEAVY REPAIRS FOR COUNTY GRAVEL ROADS

Yesterday was "gravel road" day with the Board of County Commissioners and the county engineer in the city. The West Washington-street bridge will probably be used to-day as a large force was employed yesterday putting in a temporary guardrail alongside the street-car tracks. The roadway between the tracks has not been completed and consequently the guardrail had to be built.

The opening of these two bridges has been looked for by the residents of the West Side for some time and both bridges have been very much needed during the past winter, when the floods made the other bridges unsafe.

TWO OF CITY'S BRIDGES WILL BE OPENED TO-DAY

River-Avenue and Washington-Street Structures to Be Thrown Open to the Public.

WEST SIDE IS PLEASED

Two of the city's bridges are now practically completed. Last night the River-avenue bridge was finished and after an inspection by the city engineer it will be put into use. The West Washington-street bridge will probably be used to-day as a large force was employed yesterday putting in a temporary guardrail alongside the street-car tracks. The roadway between the tracks has not been completed and consequently the guardrail had to be built.

Charles Hart's Arrest.

Charles Hart, 529 East Georgia street, who was sent to the Northern Penitentiary from this city two years ago, is wanted for the alleged kidnapping of 12-year-old boy, the right to bear the title on Friday night. They were making applications for certificates, which will, when favorably acted upon by the board, give them the right to begin the regular practice of medicine. No fewer than fifty made application during the day.

ALICE WOODS ULLMAN.

AUTHOR OF A NEW BOOK

Well-Known Indianapolis Woman Has Given to Literature "A Gingham Rose."

Alice Woods Ullman, the Indianapolis author whose earlier book, "Edges," made her name known to a large circle of readers, has just published a new novel, called "A Gingham Rose." It is a story of the struggles of students of art and letters in New York, and some of the scenes are laid in Arizona.

The frontispiece and cover design are the work of the author, who is an artist of no mean ability.

Mrs. Ullman is well known in Indianapolis, though she is at present living in New York city. She is a daughter of the late Judge William A. Woods, and the most of her life has been spent in Indianapolis. Her first book immediately gained for her more than local reputation, and this new one, it is predicted, will establish for her a position among the cleverest writers of fiction.

"A Gingham Rose" is published by the Bobbs-Merrill Company.

STAND TAKEN BY THE MACHINISTS

Chased Awheel and Afoot.

Trusting more to the speed and endurance of his legs than to the bicycle which he was riding, Iley Clark, 337 Anderson street, abandoned the wheel which he was accused of stealing yesterday and continued his flight afoot, closely pursued by Bikesmen Hull and Whison. The chase was a long one, and attracted a great crowd of negroes, who enjoyed the finish, at the rear of Lafayette place, and saw Clark meekly taken away in the patrol wagon. Clark's efforts to pawn and sell the bicycle, which he tried to use in his escape first directed suspicion towards him.

Flight of Traction Companies.

Upon the arrival of Judge Francis E. Baker, of the United States Court, from Chicago the arguments of the case of the Northwestern Traction Company against the Consolidated Traction Company and the city of Crawfordsville were heard yesterday, but no decision was reached. Each company is fighting for the possession of three streets in Crawfordsville. A franchise was granted to the Northwestern Traction Company, but was afterward revoked and granted to the Consolidated Company.
